Director to Speak at South Carolina Captive Insurance Association's Ninth Annual Executive Educational Conference

Columbia-The ninth annual executive education conference will be held December 10-12, 2008 in Charleston, SC. The conference is sponsored by the South Carolina Captive Insurance Association, Inc. (SCCIA) which was established in July of 2000. This year's conference offers sessions focusing on the trends, issues and opportunities concerning captive insurance. Scott Richardson, Director of Insurance will open the educational program with a session entitled, Captive Formations in South Carolina: The Case for Stability. Other speakers include the Honorable Glenn McConnell, Gavin Souter of Business Insurance and a faculty of captive industry experts.

"We look forward to an exciting program and lively discussions of the trends and opportunities for the alternative risk transfer market," Director Richardson said. The two day program will include presentations, break-out sessions and a roundtable discussion for captive and risk retention groups (RRG). "South Carolina is very proud of our captive industry and that we are the third largest US captive domicile. We are pleased to celebrate the licensing of our 200th captive within the very near future," Director Richardson stated.

The two day program will be held at the Charleston Place Hotel in Charleston, SC. For information about the program and SCCIA please visit www.sccia.org or call 888-267-2296.
